

5. A meeting was held with the Department of State to discuss the problems of the forthcoming surfacing of a [redacted] Present from CIA were Messrs. Wisner, [redacted] myself. Present for State were Assistant Secretary (for Public Affairs) McCardle, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State (for European Affairs) Elbrick, Mr. Trueheart of the Intelligence Staff and two desk officers. After a discussion of the [redacted] and matters of which he had cognizance, it was agreed that he should be [redacted] before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. The possibility that he might be [redacted] U. N. delegate Cabot Lodge was considered and rejected, as was the possibility of utilizing the medium of a State Department press conference. Discussions ensued concerning the sending of notes to certain satellite countries regarding the case of [redacted] and whether there should be announcements on this matter at the Secretary of State's press conference for 24 August. This matter was being left in the hands of [redacted] and the State Department desk officers concerned. I made an attempt to locate Chairman Jenner to make the necessary arrangements, but he is out of town in a fishing lodge without a telephone. His counsel will put him in touch with me as soon as the Senator calls in to his office. It was agreed that, if necessary, I would fly to meet Senator Jenner and explain the case and our desires to him.
